Caregiver Respite Support Program

Program Notes:

- The Indiana PathWays for Aging member and informal helper (unpaid caregiver) must be working with a UnitedHealthcare Care Coordinator or Service Coordinator.
- The informal helper must be listed as an authorized representative on the member's account.
- The informal helper must complete a caregiver assessment each quarter.
- Only informal helpers are eligible for participation in this program. Paid support people are not eligible.
- Each gift card has a value of $25. You may choose a total of $50 (two choices) per quarter and a total of $200 per year.
- The total dollar value is tracked using the Indiana PathWays for Aging member's information.
- No card choices may be redeemed for the purchase of alcohol, tobacco, or firearms.
- Please assure that the retailer is available near you before you make a choice.
- We welcome your feedback. Please let us know if you would benefit from other gift card choices.
